

Pat Ziemer

Pat Ziemer is the owner of MagnaWave PEMF and Aura Wellness. Pat has been working full-time with PEMF since 2002. The company's therapy devices are used extensively on racehorses, performance horses, and professional athletes.

- Several recent Kentucky Derby winners and numerous world champions in many horse disciplines utilize the therapy regularly.
- Many NFL, MLB, NBA, NHL, and MLS teams utilize MagnaWave Therapy.

In 2007, Pat began working with high-powered PEMF devices. He branded the devices as MagnaWave and hit the road marketing the MagnaWave brand. Since 2007 the company has placed over 4000 MagnaWave devices into the market for private and professional use. In 2019 he began the process of having his devices cleared by the FDA and CE marked for international distribution. One device is now registered with the FDA and three more are on course for FDA 510K Clearance by the third quarter of 2023. MagnaWave and Aura Wellness now service the human, small animal, and equine markets.
